

THE IFA FOUNDATION

Sacred Alignment Empowerment Healing Center

IFA FOUNDATION INNER CIRCLE MEMBER

Sangogbemi (Julio)

12 Years veteran who specializes in helping veteran on how to survive and battle PTSD. Sango came to work with the IFA Foundation in the search of spiritual connection. Through the visions of his journey and volunteering his time, he discovered that by helping others, he was helping himself and it was in the act of services he found healing.

As an entrepreneur and through the discipline of applied anthropology, Sangogbemi redesigned his business life work around his passion and values. He is behind The Ifalatino Foundation a community service website dedicated to those who share a passion and purpose in life. He also a coordinator of the Sacred Veteran Healing Retreat, a program dedicated to help victims of PTSD.

Sango earned a Bachelor Degree from Rollins College with a dual concentration in Applied Anthropologies with an emphasis on word religious and Organizational Behavior and is also a candidate for a Master Degree with a concentration in International Business. He also serves on the United Army for 12 years where he was awarded multiple awards and decorations including the Bronze Star Medal. He is also a Project Manager, Business Strategies, six sigma certified. He is also an advocate of the LGT and all type of personality disorder.

On his free time Sango practice and enjoy Yoga, Pilates, Music, Gardening, Beekeeping and acting...

Kawo Kabiyesile Shango!

Sangogbemi

Applied Antropologies

Sacred Veteran Healing Retreat Coordinator

Sango IFA Priest

Kowo Priest. (Aje Shaluga)